Bio

Chauna Sumpter is an actor, voice-over artist, and singer defined by presence.

Born in Brooklyn and raised in Hollis, Queens, her artistic foundation is rooted in rhythm, gospel, soul, Broadway, and the music that filled her childhood home. A fourth-generation COGIC girl and lifelong performer, she began speaking and singing in church and later earned recognition for vocal excellence throughout school and college. Performance was never a phase, it was inheritance.

After years devoted to motherhood and rebuilding her life across the country, Chauna returned to her craft with passion and clarity. Since 2017, she has built her acting career independently, signing with Osbrink Adult Talent in 2021 and booking six national commercial campaigns, including Marie's Dressing, CoolTone, Marshalls, and Lexus. In 2023 she secured her first TV/film agent and booked a television audition opposite David Oyelowo in Government Cheese.

Known for being highly directable and emotionally grounded, Chauna brings authenticity, sophistication, and heart to every performance. Her work reflects persistence, skill, and the courage to return stronger.

Short Bio
